

Job Description

Job Title: Residential Childcare Worker

Location: Newcastle upon Tyne

Reports to: Registered Manager

Evolution Children Services aims to provide the highest levels of care and service to enable young people to achieve their goals. We do this by ensuring our staff are recruited, vetted and trained against a strict framework with emphasis placed on the quality and continuity of our care workers to provide a stable and secure environment for all young people.

We are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and we expect all staff and volunteers to share this commitment

We are dedicated to working flexibly and imaginatively with all other professionals and families to ensure the best interests of every young person in our care are consistently served.

Purpose of Job:

To join a team offering a comprehensive residential service to children and young people, the aim being to ensure the physical, social and emotional care and development of the young people and the establishments.

Aims and Objectives of Evolution Children Services

Evolution Children Services aims to offer a caring, supportive residential environment for all the young people in its care. As part of this environment, a stable and consistent framework of appropriate routines and behavioural boundaries is seen as being of paramount importance.

Many young people entering residential care can demonstrate, largely due to previous learning and negative experiences, a range of attitudes and behaviours which test and push boundaries. Therefore it is essential that the living environment is designed which offers a clear balance between sensitive care and support along with a positive approach which recognises the importance of nurturing control within socially acceptable norms.

It is recognised that in a positive, supportive and safe environment, staff may be able to divert a young person's energies away from destructive and inappropriate behaviour.

The aim of this approach is to support young people to gain an understanding of what is socially acceptable behaviour, and which will hopefully promote the increased likelihood of positive outcomes and brighter futures.

Duties and Responsibilities

- To maintain the development of positive childcare practice in keeping with the aims and objectives of Evolution Children Services.
- To provide a safe, warm and supportive environment for the young people
- To carry out duties in line with Evolution Children Services policies with reference at all times to the positive implementation of equality and diversity strategies for young people and staff team as a whole
- To comply with company rules, policies and practices of the home and to respond to emergencies that may arise within the home.
- To foster and encourage, whenever appropriate, contact between residents and their extended families.
- To promote and encourage learning by the young people accommodated with Evolution Children Services.
- To develop a responsible attitude with young people in regard to the fabric, furnishings, equipment, supplies and services in or to the establishment and to support them in all domestic aspects of both their own personal space and communal areas within the home.
- To accompany the young people on outdoor activities when required.
- Reporting missing persons to the Police, responsible local authority and those with parental responsibility. This includes reporting missing persons returned.
- To provide and maintain high levels of cleanliness.
- To ensure that all communal areas of the home are clean and tidy.
- To carry out household duties, shopping, cleaning, cooking and generally ensuring that the household and garden area are maintained in a safe manner
- This position involves some manual handling duties e.g. loading and unloading washing machine.
- To maintain a regular system of recording in connection with each young person, to be involved in the development and implementation of individual care plans and to provide reports as and when required
- To accept responsibility for monies as may be required in carrying out necessary duties
- To undertake administrative duties as required e.g. log books, daily information sheets, accident book, incident book, incident sheets etc.
- To maintain case file records, including details of assessment plans, decisions, visits, and their implementation and evaluation of action with regard to individual care plans
- To ensure that young people receive any medical attention that they may require, and ensure that regulations regarding the maintenance of drugs on the premises are complied with at all times
- To deal with telephone enquiries obtaining as much information as possible before passing the matter to senior on call if necessary.

- To report all matters of concern to the senior on call.
- To be aware of fire prevention regulations and be practised in fire drills.
- To be a member of a team of residential childcare workers and be involved in the planning and organisation of the placement which is the total living environment for each young person living within the home
- To provide a positive working role model for other colleagues and the young people supported by the organisation. With reference at all times to the companies equality and diversity policies and the recognition of each person's unique racial, cultural, religious and sexuality based needs
- To demonstrate both sensitivity and appropriate assertiveness, whilst working in a pressured environment with groups of diverse young people and colleagues.
- To carry out the duties of the post in a mature and responsible manner, seeking and receiving support as necessary.
- To be available on an on-call basis to cover staff at short falls and/or operational emergencies.
- To work in such other locations as may be required from time to time.
- To physically intervene if a resident's behaviour is dangerous to others or themselves, in accordance with procedural guidance of the establishment and relevant legislation.
- To provide escort duties as and when required
- Any other duties as may be required and directed by senior staff.
- To undertake training as required.

Training

This position requires a commitment to undertake training as required for the proper and full conduct of duties.

Training will be in the following forms:-

On the job

Attendance on various in-house and external courses and training days

Studying towards the Diploma Level 3 qualification (unless already completed or equivalent completed) or any other qualification as relevant by Evolution Children Services Limited or as set by Government Legislation for individuals carrying out work with children.

Evolution Children Services has a commitment to register all Residential Childcare Worker's onto the Level 3 Diploma for Residential Childcare within 6 months of date of commencement.

Probationary Period

Probation normally lasts for a period of 6 months from the first day of service.

Successful completion of your probationary period will be dependant on your performance and completion of the required probationary training.

Experience and Qualifications

Due to the specialised nature of this work candidates should be able to demonstrate their understanding of the needs of adolescents, particularly those in care. A full manual driving licence is desirable, as many of our homes are in isolated locations and you may be required to drive the young people to appointments, home visits, local authorities etc.

Preferred candidates will hold a childcare qualification and/or experience of youth work (e.g. young offenders, befriender, fostering).

Physical Conditions/Location

Newcastle upon Tyne

Pay and Conditions

Starting Salary:	£ 15,329pa (Unqualified) £16,875pa (Qualified)
Sleep in Allowance	£25.00 per night
On Call Allowance	N/A
Leave:	207 hours per annum
Hours:	296 hours in every eight weeks
Responsible to:	Registered Manager
Probation:	Appointments are subject to satisfactory completion of a probationary period, normally 6 months.
CRB Disclosure	An Enhanced Disclosure and Barring Check will be required for this post.

Legal and Statutory Responsibilities

All staff must be prepared to comply with Evolution Children Services Health and Safety policies and attend relevant statutory training as required.

Evolution Children Services is committed to diversity and inclusion of staff and residents. All staff are required to demonstrate their commitment to these policies in their day to day work and to treat others with dignity and respect at all times.

Corporate Responsibilities

All staff are expected to demonstrate a commitment to the vision, aims and core principles of Evolution

Children Services and be prepared to contribute towards these aims within their staff team.

This job description is not an exhaustive list of all the duties and responsibilities, and is subject to change in accordance with the needs of the company.

Offers of employment are subject to satisfactory references, Enhanced Criminal Records Bureau check and continuous satisfactory performance.